

Podhe Prabhu

Podhe Prabhu Sakal Munike Shyaam;
Shree Hari(Lord), who is the lord (one with a dark complexion) of all the saints is about to rest(sleep) for the night.

Narnarayan Divya Murti; Swaminarayan Divya Murti, Santanke Vishraam ...
Podhe ... 1
The divine form of Lord Narnarayan and Lord Swaminarayan is the resting place (abode) of all the saints.

Akshar Par Aanandghan Prabhu Kiyo Hai Bhupar Thaam;
Lord Shree Hari who is the supreme being in (upon) Akshardham and is full (mass) of bliss has come to down to earth and made it his home.

Jehi Milat Jan Tarat Maayaa, Lahat Akshardham ... Podhe ... 2
Those persons who come in contact (meet) with him will overcome ignorance and illusions of 'Maya' and will achieve heaven.

Shaarad Shesh Mahesh Mahamuni, Japat Jehi Gunnaam;
Brahma, Lord Sheshnarayan, Lord Shiva and all the great saints chant his (that) name which is full of divine qualities.

Jaas Padraj, Shish Dhari Dhari, Hot Jan Nishkaam ... Podhe ... 3
By anointing (placing) their heads again and again with the sand particles, which have been touched by Shree Hari's feet, every person becomes free of desires.

Prem Ke Paryanka Par Prabhu, Karat Sukh Aaram;
The Lord is having a pleasant rest on a bedstead that is lovingly made.

Muktanand Nij Charandhig, Gunn Gaavat Aathu Jaam ... Podhe ... 4
Muktanand Swami says he sits near the lotus feet of Shree Hari and sings his praises (qualities) every hour of the day.

Re Shyaam tame

Re Shyam Tame Saachunaanau, Biju Sarve Dukhdaayak Jaanu... Re Shyam...

O Lord (one with a dark complexion you are the real wealth. Everything else is considered to bring unhappiness and suffering.

Re Tam Vinaa Sukhsampat Kahaave

O It is said that all the wealth and happiness without you,

Teto Sarve Mahadukh Upjaave;
That all creates great pain

Ante Ema Kaam Koinaave, ... Re Shyam ... 1 and at the end of one's life all that it is of no use (to work) for anyone.

Re Murakh Lok Maare Bhatki,

O All the foolish persons wander all over (within) the world,

Jootha Sange Haare Shir Patki;
and bang their heads in the company (with) of undesirable (false) persons.

Ethi Maari Mann Vruti Atki, ... Re Shyam ... 2

Realising (From) that all that is false, my mind (focus) has stopped wandering.

Che Akhand Alaukik Sukh Taaru

My Lord yours is the everlasting divine happiness.

Te Joi Joi Mann Mohyu Maaru;

Seeing that again and again my mind has been attracted to you.

Dharaa Dhan Tam Upar Vaaru, ... Re Shyam ... 3

My lord I want to bestow all my wealth and my land to (upon) you as they are not mine but are yours.

Re Brahmathi Kit Lagi Joyu,

O I have looked at everything, from the creator Lord Brahma to the tiniest insect

Juthu Sukh Janine Vagovyu;

and I understand that everything it is all false happiness and I have rejected it all.

Muktanand Mann Tam Sang Mohyu ... Re Shyam ... 4

Muktanand Swami says that my mind is engrossed in you (company)
